YOUNG BROS. TO THE RESCUE

When the schooner Alumna set sail from the harbor yesterday for Wailapa Harbor, Washington, she went all right until she got in the channel when she veered too far off to the Ewa side of the channel and ran on the reef near the third pile makal of the Light-house. She stuck there. Young Bros. noticed her pilikia and went out in the launches Billy and Fun, carried lines to the Channel wharf and aided her in getting off the dangerous rocks. She was finally brought into deep water and finding that no great damage had been sustained, she continued on her voyage.

SEIZED RICH WOMAN'S TRUNK

The Customs authorities at San Francisco seized the trunk of Mrs. Mary Judge, a wealthy resident of Salt Lake City, as it was landed from the steamship Siberia, it being alleged that there was a large quantity of dutiable goods which she had not declared in the custom's blank provided for that purpose. In some Japanese obis were gold lace, embroidered work, gold trimmings, and among the undeclared articles a Japanese sword, cloisonne vases, rare cups and saucers, silk gowns, bolts of silk. The duty on the goods is about $1,000. Mrs. Judge was entertained here during her stay in port.

Alameda in Port.

The Oceanic steamship Alameda arrived from San Francisco yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, a delay of about two hours being occasioned at the entrance to the Channel by a rigid examination by the quarantine physicians. Two children of Mrs. C. B. Wells had chicken-pox, and the vessel was not passed until the doctors had investigated the sickness thoroughly. The Alameda left San Francisco on May 23, and brought seven days' mail and 1330 tons of freight. She experienced two days of hard weather. The Salvation Army band was on the dock to greet Mrs. Col. French. Among the passengers was Miss Emma Wolfe, formerly of the Smithsonian Institution of Washington, D. C., who comes here to enter the post office. She is a niece of Senator Clay of Georgia.

OPINION SUSTAINS COLLECTOR OF PORT

Collector Stackable received from the Treasury Department yesterday an opinion sustaining the collector in his decision respecting shipments of goods received by Hackfeld & Co., and Macfarlane & Co., in 1901. At that time the two firms mentioned received merchandise including "railway bars," the former by the ship Lita, on November 13, 1901, and the latter on January 5, 1901. They protested against the assessment of duty at the rate of 45 per cent. ad valorem on the railway bars. The protestants claimed the merchandise was dutiable at the rate of 7-20 of one cent per pound.
